

The April fair

This fair usually begins two weeks after Easter and lasts six days.

What is characteristic for this event are traditional costumes worn by visitors to the fair.

In addition, the symbol of the fair are the riders and carriages.

The April fair in Seville is also famous bullring, bullfighting and the matador.

